

PARENTING & BABIES

Painless travel with kids

Friday, May 02, 2008

Painless travel with kids

The newest online gold mine that's perfect for parents looking to sane on family...

Yahoo! Shine's parenting editor, Charlene Birkeland, talks about family class travel and ways to make travel with kids easier.

Bring things to keep them busy on planes.

A good idea to bring small toys and books to keep them entertained.

I like the name of this one toy- "Think-ets"- HOST

Think-ets, yeah, trinkets that are Think-ets for the plane. A little bag filled with small little trinkets.

Each bag that the company sells comes with small trinkets you can use them on the plane for various games, different story telling games on long flights.